Class History

In September 1948, Mrs. Svoboda, the Kindergarten teacher greeted fourteen little angels with a happy smile. The roll call read as follows: Collette Hagan, Marilyn McGregor, Helen Johnson, Judy Davision, Janice Krug, Terry Stelling, Carolyn Schirm, Pat Schanbacher, Norman Popenhagan, Ronnie Beatty, Doreene Young, Tom Lange, David Pearson, and Gary Sparks.

After finally struggling through their first year of school the little tots now a year older found their ranks depleted to eleven with the loss of Ronnie Beatty, Judy Davision, Helen Johnson, and Carolyn Schirm. Betty Readnour was a new addition to our class. Mrs. Lewis was our teacher.

In our second year we received our third new teacher, who was Miss Fitzpatrick. We gained DeWayne Pettit and lost Gary Sparks.

In the fall of '52 we entered the third grade, Mrs. Hobson was our teacher. We lost Pat Schanbacher, Tom Lange, DeWayne Pettit and gained Ronald Close.

As Mrs. David McNamara greeted the fourth grade she found the roll as follows. David Pearson, Norman Popenhagan, Ronald Close, Terry Stelling, Betty Readnour, Marilyn McGregor, Terry Arnold, Janice Krug, Collette Hagan, and Doreen Young.

The next year our teacher was again Mrs. McNamara. Our class gained Gary Sparks and Ronnie Beatty and lost Betty Readnour and Terry Arnold. This was the year the school house burned and we had classes the last two months in the Lutheran Church Basement, While our new school was being built our seventh grade classes were held in the Memorial Hall and were taught by Miss Klinsky.

Ten proud and mighty seventh graders passed trials to reach eighth grade graduation. The graduates were Gary Sparks, Terry Stelling, Jeanne Woodson, David Pearson, Collette Hagan, Douglas Miles, Margaret Burke, Ronald Beatty, Janice Krug, and Carol Ashlock.

Sixteen smart Freshmen strutted and stalked into the assembly of the Atkins High School. But the smartness was soon taken out of them by a large and huskier bunch of Seniors. It was in this year that we gained Tom Cranston, Norman Popenhagan, Pat Schanbacher, Tom Lange, Helen Johnson, Ken Koch, Jim Kreutner, and Gene Kiekhaefer, from the Lutheran School. We lost Carol Asklock and Margaret Burke. Our biggest event in our Freshman year was our Freshman Initiation. Our sponsor in our Freshman years was Mr. Kempf.

We surprised everybody by being promoted to the tenth grade. Our class sponsor for this year was Mr. Knock. In this year we lost David Pearson.

Only two years left but we were still ready for them. In this year Mrs. Fischer and Miss Box were our sponsors. We lost Ken Koch and Gene Keikhaefer and gained Kathy Forrest. Oriental Spring was the theme of our Junior-Senior Banquet on April 29, 1961.

Finally after twelve long years we were ready to begin the last lap. Our class finally ended with twelve members. We lost Helen Johnson. The Seniors excitingly awaiting their diplomas are Jim Kreutner, Janice Krug, Pat Schanbacher, Gary Sparks, Tom Cranston, Kathy Forrest, Collette Hagan, Terry Stelling, Tom Lange, Jeanne Woodson, Norman Popenhagan, and Ronnie Beatty. Terry Stelling, Collette Hagan, and Janice Krug were the only members of the class that attended our school all of the thirteen years.

Class Prophecy

Atkins, Iowa
May 24, 1972

Dear Mrs. Flackenstein:

In answer to your letter as to what our class is doing now, ten years after graduation, I have made up the following list:

- Ronnie Beatty -- is head ranger at Jellystone National Park. He sends greetings from Yogi and Boo Boo.
- Jim Kreutner -- is employed by the Iowa Highway Patrol and is kept busy chasing Gary Sparks Jr. who still drives his dad's '51 Chevy.
- Pat Schanbacher -- is now married to the head basketball coach at the University of Iowa, and is living in Iowa City. Pat is very proud of the first team since they are all hers.
- Tom Cranston -- is now President of the Ford Motor Co. We all know that in '62 Cranny had the hottest '55 Ford (Tin-can) on the road.
- Jeanne Woodson -- is now married to a famous photographer and is living in Vinton. She is his leading model.
- Gary Sparks -- is now a barber and is kept busy cutting Jim Kreutner's hair in payment for his son's fines.
- Collette Hagan -- is now married to a Professional Wrestler, and living three miles south of Fairfax, she is kept quite busy with her six boys and three girls but in her "spare" time she raises Siamese cats.
- Tom Lange -- is the owner of a string of lumber yards across the country. He and his sixth wife are now living in Canada.
- Kathy Forrest -- is now married to a millionaire and living in Newhall, Nebraska where she is busy taking care of her new set of triplets.
- Janice Krug -- is now running a big Dude Ranch in Kentucky where she raises prize horses for the Grand National.
- Terry Stelling -- is now a world's famous painter. He has just completed the kitchen walls and will attempt the basement floor next week.
- Norman Popenhagen -- has now joined the Marines and marches in hurricanes daily with his five daughters.

Sincerely,

Kathy Forrest
Secretary of the Class of 1962

Mrs. Fischer,
 This year will be in my mind always. I can't express my thanks for having you as a teacher, mother or just a pal, maybe you might say you all of these things to me. You're really a swell person to tell problems to - and man! do I have problems!! I hope we can be "pals"
 next year. Mary
